REPORT OF THE PROPOSED REVISION
OF THE STATEMENT OF GENERAL
ROUTINE USES FOR ALL CIA
RECORDS SYSTEMS SUBJECT TO THE PRIVACY ACT

In accordance with OMB Circular No. A-108, Transmittal Memorandum No. 1, 30 September 1975, and Transmittal Memorandum No. 3, 17 May 1976, the Central Intelligence Agency is proposing a revision of the statement of general routine uses for all CIA records systems. The revision will add one new routine use statement and will clarify four of the original six routine uses through appropriate technical and legal word changes. The last two routine uses originally promulgated remain unchanged.

°Purpose: The proposed addition of one new routine use and the revision, through language changes, of four of the original six routine uses are intended to clarify and to bring a measure of refinement to the general routine uses in order to enable the CIA more effectively to carry out its responsibilities under applicable Federal law.

°Authority: Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a).

°Supporting Data: Notice of proposed amendment to the general routine uses statement is attached.
